Chapter 1 by Nyq

3 years had passed since the disease rampaged humanity, many people died and only a few survived. I was one of them.

My name was George, and I lived in a small town before the outbreak. I had a great life, until the outbreak destroyed it.

I fled the town with a bunch of family and friends. We fled into a nearby forest, no food, no water, no supplies, and we know they are coming for us. We made a shelter and barricaded it with everything we got. Months had passed, and we thought we were safe. But we are not, they attacked our fortress and broke through the walls, many of us are killed, only a few of us survived the attack.

We ran and hid everywhere in the forest, hoping to get help.

"George, should we stop here, the sky is getting dark." said Terence, the technician of our group, but his skills have no use for us now.

"Ok, let's find a place to sleep for tonight. Be fast, we don't want the zombies to find us." I said.

The few of us climbed up a tree, tying ourselves to the branches to avoid becoming zombie food.

The next day, We continued our voyage, as usual.

Until Lucas hears a mild groan.

"Shoot! Shoot! Kill them all!" he said.

But the noise of our guns attracted more of them. We battled thousands of them as we retreat from the forest. We thought we will survive this, but looks like this is a dead end.

"That's it, we are doomed" said Terence as he raised his gun to his head.

We all followed suit.

BANG!

The loud noise of our guns echoes through the forest.

Meanwhile, in another city.

"Run, Lisa! They are here!" I shouted as the zombies breached our defense, preying on those of us who are still sleeping. Luckily, I woke up to pee, or I will have become one of them.

"But Frank, we don't have a place to run to!"

"Just run!"
